Childhood Cancer

Curefest Canada's mission is to make childhood cancer research a national priority by uniting the childhood cancer community, the general public, the medical community, pediatric oncologists and our elected leaders.

A National movement begins with the first steps. We need to unite to make our voice heard. Awareness is the key to achieving increased government funding and support to change the face of child cancer. Our children deserve more than 4% of our government's research dollars to develop new more effective and less toxic treatments and a true cure for child cancer. By creating Curefest Canada and working in conjunction with Curefest USA we hope to extend the power and impact of the Child Cancer Awareness movement not only within Canada, but, globally. It will provide a place for like-minded individuals to gather and exchange information & contacts and it will create awareness.

Join us in Edmonton to unite Canada's child cancer community. Curefest Canada will consist of several guest speakers, foundations with information booths, musical entertainment, child specific entertainment, a superhero walk led by Spider Mable and a video tribute to all children who have or are fighting cancer. We invite you to bring signs, dress in your foundation or child's team shirts, and in superhero costumes if you wish.
